4. Selections for prizes will be made by a committee of competent judges specially appointed for the purpose and the prizes will be distributed at the close of the show.

5 Every prize-winner will receive a certificate in addition to his prize in money.

6. The committee of the judges will be at liberty to withhold any prize in the absence of an eligible exhibit and to award the same for any other exhibit of sufficient merit.

7. Intending exhibitors will apply to the Amildar of Yedatore or other Officer appointed by him, not later than a day before the commencement of the show and get their names and the description of their exhibits registered.

8. The owner of cattle for the show are expected to take due care of their animals and guard against accidents.

9. Owners will do well to make their own arrangement for providing their cattle with fodder, as the local supply which will be made available at reasonable rates may not suffice to meet the requirement of more than the limited number of cattle adjudged suitable for the exhibition.

10. The jatra is generally well attended and will afford a good market for dealers in cattle.
